

MEDIA ADVISORY

January 11, 2016

For Immediate Release

Surrey, BC: Due to media interest in attending, please be advised of the following information regarding the Line of Duty Death funeral service for Surrey Fire Fighter Captain Randy Piticco.

Captain Piticco, a retired member worked for the Surrey Fire Service for 32 years, passed away on December 22, 2015 after a courageous battle with presumptive lung cancer. Captain Piticco's death is deemed a Line of Duty death as it has been attributed by agencies, including the Worker's Compensation Branch of British Columbia, to his years of service as a fire fighter.

DATE: Sunday, January 24, 2016
TIME: 3:00 pm arrival (in advance of service)
LOCATION: Bell Performing Arts Centre
6250 – 144th Street, Surrey

NOTES: Media will not be allowed into the auditorium.
IAFF Local 1271 President Mike McNamara will be available for interviews immediately prior to the event.
Arriving by 3:00pm is advised.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made "In memory of Randy Piticco" to the Langley Community Support Groups Society - Hope After Stroke. For online donations, Surrey Fire Fighters' Charitable Society will accept donations and redirect them to Hope After Stroke: www.surreyfirefighters.com/donate/
